

COOPERATIVE STRATEGIES

COMPLETE FINANCIAL & DEMOGRAPHIC PLANNING FOR EDUCATION

April 19, 2017

CS NEWSFLASH: WE'RE TAP CERTIFIED!

Are you thinking about pursuing a Technical Assistance Program ("TAP") or Oregon School Capital Improvement Matching ("OSCIM") grant? If so, navigating the planning process can be daunting, and we can help. Cooperative Strategies not only has two (2) TAP Certified Assessors, but an entire team of professionals who can guide Oregon's school districts through the many facets of facilities planning.

Comprehensive Expertise:

We pride ourselves on being one of the only firms in the country with comprehensive resources and nationwide experience to help school districts create, finance and execute their facilities plans. Our consultants work together to blend their individual skills in the areas of demographics, facilities planning, financial advisory, and program implementation. By looking at all of the factors that go into a facilities plan, we are able to provide services that encompass the unique characteristics of our clients to create a truly customized experience.

Our TAP Certified Assessors:

DAVID STURTZ

Partner

David has over a decade of experience as a teacher, educational entrepreneur and most recently as a strategic planner with Cooperative Strategies. His focus is on merging educational program vision with condition and demographic data. He works with school districts to ensure their facilities and programs improve educational prospects and create the best learning environments for their students.

SCOTT NEWELL

Senior Director

Scott spent ten years with the Colorado Department of Education overseeing the Division of Capital Construction and was responsible for managing the $1.2 billion "Building Excellent Schools Today" grant program and Colorado's statewide public school facility assessment. Scott currently focuses on master planning and owner's representation to help school districts create and execute their facilities plans.

If you have any questions about our services or how we can specifically help your school district, please contact us today at 844.654.2421 x320 or info@coopstrategies.com.
